

I cannot help but wonder what anti-competitive measures the NAB will come up with next! Instead of their members improving their service and providing consumers with what they want, they go to the government and whine for protection. I PAY for satellite radio because it's the only way I can get the information I want when I am on the road. I operate a service-oriented trucking business. Thank you for giving me a chance to put in my nickel's worth.